Boyer 18136 Staff Impression

Boyer stands at 6' with a solid, medium build. His almond-shaped, light blue eyes give him a sharp, focused look, paired with blond hair that’s neatly kept. His features include a defined and full bottom lip and a distinct Cupid’s bow, adding to his expression. A dimple appears on his right cheek when he smiles, and his chin carries a slight cleft, giving his face a subtle but noticeable character.

Boyer is a data scientist and graduate student, always balancing work, study, and personal growth. In his free time, he’s often found rock climbing, pushing himself both mentally and physically. Tacos are his go-to comfort food. He describes himself as "empathetic to a fault", showcasing his heart of gold. With a naturally analytical mindset, he’s always looking to learn something new and improve himself. Family is central to his life, and he keeps those close connections a priority no matter how busy things get.
