

Open Donor: Terry

Staff Impression

Terry has wavy, strawberry blonde hair with bright, blue eyes and a fair complexion to match. He keeps his athletic physique strong and fit with activities such as running, playing soccer, and cardio.

It is always a delight to see Terry. He brightens our day by wearing a big smile that shows off his straight, white teeth lighting up the room every time he enters. He always seems to be super happy exuding a positive energy and is never in a bad mood. Terry is very easy to talk to, always has something interesting to say, and is extremely passionate about people and life. With his kind heart and desire to help others, it makes sense that he has begun a career in the healthcare industry as an RN. If you are looking for someone full of joy who loves the world and wants to make it a better place for others, Terry may be the donor for you!
