

Killian is tall and slim with a diamond-shaped face that features high cheekbones and a broad smile. He is very outgoing, organized, and put together donor with a positive attitude and a charming laugh.

Killian has a strong work ethic and has a lot of gratitude for family and other loved ones who have supported him while working and attending university. He is an altruistic person whose future goals include helping others pursue college educations of their own.