

Gentry (12364) Staff Impression

Gentry is an extraordinary donor who is tall, handsome, intelligent, and exceptionally athletic. He is lean and muscular with long limbs and broad shoulders. He has tan skin and a rectangular face with deep-set eyes, a broad smile, a rounded nose with a high bridge, and a well-defined jawline all framed with a short beard and long, wavy hair.

Gentry's boundless energy and love for adventure, travel, unique life experiences, and connecting with others are evident in his numerous hobbies, close relationships, and career as a program manager. He is always on the move, whether it be competing in triathlons, surfing, sailing, mountain climbing, or riding his bike around the city. Despite being high-energy, he is very easy-going, introspective, and full of empathy for others. Gentry sees being a donor as a fulfilling opportunity to help others who have made the brave and exciting decision to become parents.
