

Sabriel 10657 Staff Impression

Sabriel is ruggedly handsome, standing tall at 6 feet with a muscular, medium build. His hazel eyes exude warmth and intelligence, complementing his thick, wavy brown hair. His fair skin is clear, smooth, and youthful, while his oval face is adorned with a short, tidy beard, adding a touch of maturity to his overall look.

Having recently graduated with a degree in Engineering, with a focus on project management, Sabriel has embarked on a fulfilling career as an engineering project manager. He specializes in overseeing road and transportation projects, utilizing his skills and knowledge to ensure the successful completion of these complex endeavors. He finds great satisfaction in his work and aspires to continue making significant contributions to the field and the community. Family holds a special place in Sabriel's heart, and he maintains a close relationship with his parents and sister. Their influence on his life has shaped his values and character. He describes his mother as the embodiment of kindness and the importance of treating others with respect, while his father has taught him the values of justice, responsibility, and placing family first. Interacting with his sister has instilled in him a desire to do right by people and dedicate himself to the service of those in need. He enjoys the great outdoors through activities like hiking and camping, which allow him to connect with nature and recharge. Hunting, powerlifting, and boxing provide him with physical challenges and outlets for his energy. As a hobby, he also brews his own wine and mead, showcasing his passion for craftsmanship and experimentation. Sabriel is an admirable individual with a strong sense of purpose and a deep appreciation for family, loyalty, and justice. His engaging personality, intelligence, and laid-back nature make him a great donor option!
