

Staff Impression Shea 12922

Shea 12922 is funny, personable, and truly adorable! Shea has a defined square face and jaw with an inviting smile that are accentuated by his full cheeks. He has gorgeous thick tight curls, short in length and has his hair cut close on the sides. Shea illuminates the room with positivity and is always smiling. His amber eyes are round and framed by thick square eyebrows and laugh lines! With his bubbly attitude and inclination to start a conversation, his career as a wedding DJ makes perfect sense!

Shea 12922 is hard working and values togetherness! He looks forward to owning his own Entertainment Company and continuing creating performances for special occasions. He values unconditional love, taught to him by his family, and strives to bring that in his career and with his friends. He spends times with friends creating new experiences, attending music festivals, and playing basketball, demonstrating how much he values people. Shea's contagious smile, optimism, and perspective make us so excited to have him in our program!
