

Horton (14069) Staff Impression

Horton has straight dark brown hair, fair skin, and handsome green eyes. He is 5'7" tall and has a lean, medium build. He has lived the majority of his life in Russia and recently moved to California. He is currently a student, learning the English language and adjusting to the culture. What an admirable journey! He has become a great fan of the warm coast and enjoys going for swims in the ocean.

Horton is fairly athletic. He grew up playing soccer and currently likes to keep active by swimming and practicing yoga. In his free time, he likes to watch MMA sporting events, play the guitar, and read. He is practicing his English by reading psychology texts as well as books about yoga. Horton is well-traveled, he has been to several European countries such as Sweden, Greece, and Italy. He reflects on the cultural differences he learned during his travels to Thailand and Cambodia, stating how he enjoyed experiencing a different way of life. Horton is a hardworking, courageous, and adventurous person, and we are excited to have him as a donor!
