

Buhner 12578 Staff Impression

Buhner has blonde hair which compliments his fair skin. He has expressive brown eyes and a rectangular face and a well-defined jawline that complements his face shape. His face exudes a youthful yet rugged and masculine charm. His lean, athletic build is a testament to his dedication to outdoor activities, which include running, cycling, and hiking.

Buhner is an accomplished individual with a diverse background and unwavering commitment to environmental sustainability. Professionally, Buhner shines as a renewable energy finance professional, where his role involves securing funding for large-scale renewable energy projects globally. Armed with a graduate degree in environmental science, he embodies his passion for climate change mitigation and a resilient electrical grid. Buhner's academic journey, combined with his hands-on experiences as a forester and vegetable farm manager, demonstrates his holistic approach to environmental preservation. Beyond his professional and academic achievements, Buhner is an accomplished athlete, having excelled in running and cycling. His prowess as a D1 varsity athlete in cross country and track speaks to his unwavering dedication to pushing his limits and achieving personal and collective goals. His adventurous spirit extends beyond the realm of sports, encompassing activities like hiking, gardening, and cold water plunging. At his core, Buhner embodies values of generosity, kindness, and community building.