

Sasha Staff Impression

Standing at 6ft 1, Sasha is sociable and welcoming with a twinkle in his blue, Irish eyes. He is an artist and designer and aspires to have his own shoe repair and design business. He enjoys social activities and a plethora of outdoor sports, like kayaking, bike riding, and swimming. He has two younger siblings and feels that his parents taught him patience, self-respect and communication.

Sasha is a people person who loves being social, listening to classic rock with friends and traveling when he is able. He considers himself a passionate and creative person and he is always open to new experiences. He really cares about people and the message he wants to convey to anyone who chooses him as a donor is to truly believe in yourself, your goals and loving who you are. From his unique charm and wit, versatile interests and intelligence, you will find that these qualities make Sasha a great addition to the donor program.
