

Haddon 16021

Haddon is an intelligent, passionate, and inquisitive guy. He is tall, has blue eyes, wavy, light brown hair, and subtle dimples. Haddon currently works as an Environmental Consultant. His passion for his career is admirable, as well as his advocating attitude towards keeping the environment a clean, and healthy place. In addition to his career, Haddon is bilingual, speaking Spanish as a second language, and is consistently eager to learn about new cultures. He is outgoing and adventurous; we admire how he is always trying to better himself and the world around him.

In his spare time, Haddon enjoys carpentry, writing, and hiking. Additionally, he is always up for a game of hockey. We are grateful for Haddon to be in our program and recommend him for any family.
