

Harmon 16054 Staff Impression

Standing at 5 feet 6 inches with a small build, Harmon has light brown hair that he wears shoulder-length, striking green eyes, and a fair complexion. He has a straight nose that is small and rounded, and a relaxed smile with medium-full lips. He has a small build but is strong and fit from an active lifestyle and physically demanding job and hobbies.

After successfully graduating, Harmon embarked on a career in the field of trail maintenance, where his days are filled with preserving the integrity of recreational paths. He meticulously tends to the trails, ensuring they remain safe and enjoyable for all who walk their dogs, run, or hike through the serene natural landscapes. Beyond his professional commitment, Harmon's personal life reflects his love for the outdoors as well. He enjoys outdoor activities, relishing moments spent hiking, surfing along the coast, and engaging in friendly football matches. Raised with a strong moral compass, Harmon draws inspiration from his parents' values which are rooted in hard work and respect. His deep-rooted values, professional commitment to trail maintenance, and genuine love for the outdoors reflect Harmon's personality as a dedicated professional and an individual eager to make a positive impact, both within his community and through his involvement in the donor program.
