

Early is the kind of person that brings a sense of calm when he enters a room. His voice is deep and inviting, accompanied by a wide sweet smile and square jaw. His dark blue eyes are framed by trimmed square eyebrows and dark brown hair. These traits make his ability to form relationships even easier when talking about his interests such as painting, philosophy, and sports!

Early is best described as a realist, with deep interest in his relationships and understanding how the world – and our part in it – operates. His practical and artistic nature is exemplified by his typical floral beach shirt and relaxed stature. Inspired by his value of inherent goodness in himself and others, Early's schooling and career path involves Neurobiology and clinical research on the brain. His calm and welcoming demeanor lends itself well for his career choice!
