

Tamar 14501 Staff Impression

Tamar is a handsome donor with a glowing, and youthful tan complexion. He has a rectangular face with deep-set eyes, high cheekbones, and full lips. He is noticeably fit with a lean and muscular build.

Tamar's journey in life reflects a combination of hard work and ambition. Currently employed as a safety manager in construction, he harbors dreams of attaining a senior position within the industry. Additionally, Tamar is passionate about becoming a flight paramedic, undergoing rigorous training to achieve this goal in the next six months. When not immersed in work or studies, Tamar enjoys a dynamic range of activities. An avid surfer and dog enthusiast, he spends his evenings practicing MMA and jujitsu. Tamar's decision to become a donor stems from a belief in his strong genetics and good health. He envisions contributing positively to society by providing the opportunity for others to have children of their own.
