

Helios 13073 Staff Impression

Helios is a radiant soul standing tall at 6'5". His presence commands attention, yet his demeanor is very inviting. With short, dark brown hair and his brown, almond-shaped eyes, he can captivate you, especially with his long eyelashes. Delicate freckles sprinkled across his cheeks and nose gives his whole appearance a charming and wholesome touch.

Helios is also a brilliant mind with a Ph.D. in biology, specializing in fermentation science. Adding to his academic prowess, he proudly embraces his inner "nerd", finding joy in Manga, Star Wars, and video games. When he's not working, you can find him headbanging to heavy metal music, a true metalhead at heart. As a self-professed meat enthusiast, he relishes in hearty meals and indulges in the pleasures of carnivorous diet. Helios holds a deep gratitude for his parents, aspiring to fulfill their dreams by giving them their dream vacations as tokens of his appreciation.
