

Chamberlain N0013 Staff Impression

Chamberlain, a 6'2" powerhouse from Germany who redefines the term "tall, dark, and handsome." With a jawline that could cut glass and a physique that screams "athlete," he's the epitome of rugged charm. His thick, dark brown hair and his deep brown eyes—framed by long eyelashes—could make anyone melt. Add in cheek dimples that appear when he smiles, and you could say he is a total package.

Chamberlain by day is a sharp-minded strategy consultant, and by night, he's a beach volleyball ace with a heart of gold and an insatiable curiosity. Fluent in both German and English, he navigates international waters with ease—literally, as he's traveled to 20 countries and counting! When he is not traveling, he is mastering the piano.
