

Vovan 18050 Staff Impression

Vovan is a 5'6" bundle of energy, and with curly black hair that's naturally adorned with reddish highlights and a vibrant red beard, he's hard to miss. His hazel almond eyes always seem to sparkle with curiosity, perfectly complementing his rosy cheeks and ever-present smirk. Vovan's playful spirit shines through, making every moment a bit more magical.

Vovan is a talented process engineer with a zest for adventure! He's not only conquered the technical world but also the great outdoors, completing two long-distance hiking journeys. He dreams of one day witnessing and exploring Iceland, New Zealand, and Patagonia. When he's not engineering or exploring, you'll find him strumming his bass guitar. Vovan takes immense pride in the life he's built, cherishing both his achievements and his easygoing temperament, now, he feels privileged to help another family feel complete.
