

Finn has medium brown hair and a keeps a closely trimmed beard. His nose is straight with a refined tip and he has a square jawline. He is calm with an understated sense of humor and polite manners. He maintains his lean and athletic build with a health-conscious diet and an active lifestyle that includes many hours of rock climbing.

Finn greatly values personal growth, striving to continually be learning from reading and new experiences, and pursuing career goals focused in academia. He contributes socially with various community service volunteering activities. In his free time, Finn enjoys travel and spending much of his time outdoors. We enjoy our chats with him when he visits.