Biddle 14502 Staff Impression

Biddle stands tall at 6'4" and has a lean and athletic build. He has sun-kissed, tanned skin from spending extended periods in the sun rock climbing and surfing. He has classic good looks with a rectangular face, full lips, bright blue eyes, a slightly upturned nose, and a chiseled jawline. He wears his sandy blond, sunbleached hair in a shaggy cut and keeps his face clean-shaven. His grooming and dress reflect his practical and comfortable style.

Biddle is a dedicated student pursuing a degree in computer science focusing on software engineering. He not only showcases a strong work ethic but also actively contributes as a teaching assistant on campus. Biddle enjoys a variety of hobbies, from exploring the world of pottery to diving into the realms of literature, where his choices range from self-help books to immersive fantasy novels like "The Hobbit."

Biddle has a magnetic, outgoing personality and he enjoys meeting new people, fostering meaningful relationships, and sharing his passions with others. His dedication to helping others, such as through academic support or his aspirations toward being a donor to assist families in need, reflects his altruistic nature and desire to make a positive impact.
