

Metija 14593 Staff Impression

Metija is a charismatic man hailing from Ukraine with a heart as warm as his smile! Standing tall at 5'11", he boasts a medium athletic build that tells tales of adventure and a life well-lived. With short brown hair that's always impeccably styled and a slight goatee adding a dash of mystery, Metija is charming as well as approachable. His round, kind brown eyes are the window to his soul and very inviting. Always ready with a laugh and a helping hand, Metija is the friend everyone wishes they had.

Metija is also a spirited table tennis coach who's not just a mentor but also a champion, proudly flaunting his gold medal from the national championships! This lefty man of many talents speaks three languages—English, Russian, and Ukrainian! When he's not smashing ping pong balls, you'll find him piecing together puzzles or rock climbing. With dreams of soaking up the unique energy of New York City, Metija is always on the lookout for his next big adventure.
