

Staff Impression Zorro 10661

Zorro 10661 is delightfully handsome and kind! When you first meet Zorro, you first notice his round, bluish green eyes accessorized by laugh lines that show with his sweet smile. He has a well-defined square chin, a beautiful, long nose that slightly tilts downward and a square face. His athletic medium build matches his hobbies, as he is an avid runner and plays basketball. His style is best described as sporty comfort, usually seen in a loose athletic shirt and cargo shorts with sneakers.

He is self-reflective, well-mannered, has a plethora of hobbies, and thrives off new experiences! His taste in music, sports, and books share one thing: variety. He is not committed to any one genre or expression and enjoys connecting with people by sharing these interests once he gets to know them! While Zorro can be quiet, one of his core values is treating people well and with respect, something that we experience each time we see him!
