

Chao (14084) Staff Impression

Chao stands with an average height and a medium lean build. He has a friendly demeanor with deep brown eyes and dark brown hair that he keeps neatly styled. Chao has great social skills. He is an extroverted person who makes friends with anyone he passes. With his sense of humor and jokes he is always making us laugh!

Chao may have an easy going personality, but he is very serious about his career goals. He is determined to go to medical school and become a physician. He is currently studying biology and working in a research laboratory. In his free time, Chao is an avid fan of golf. He loves to play and watch the sport and would love to travel around the world to participate in golf. Chao is a friendly, driven, and well rounded donor who we are glad to have in the program!
