Spruce stands tall at 5'11" with an athletic build that suggests he's always on the move. A lefty with a flair for creativity, he sees the world through his captivating almond-shaped hazel eyes, which seem to hold so much curiosity behind them. His short brown hair complements his full eyebrows, adding to his charmingly approachable vibe. Whether he's conquering a new hiking trail or sharing a laugh with friends, Spruce is always ready for an adventure—preferably one that involves a bit of playful banter!

Spruce is a law enforcement officer with a heart of gold and a love for the great outdoors. When he's not keeping the peace, you'll find him casting a line at his favorite fishing spot, where he swears the fish are just waiting to be caught. Family is his number one priority, and his bond with his brother is legendary—they're basically a dynamic duo, minus the capes. Whether it's a backyard BBQ or a camping trip, Spruce is all about making memories with the people who matter most
