

Banes 18058 Staff Impression

Banes stands tall at 6'1", with a slim yet athletic frame. He has fine and neat side-parted blond hair, adding to his composed appearance. His wide-set, royal blue eyes are captivating, carrying both intensity and an inviting depth. A square jawline frames his features and adds a touch of ruggedness to his composed look. Though his straight smile leans serious, it has a subtle charm, hinting at his thoughtful and approachable personality beneath his poised demeanor.

Banes is the kind of person who thrives on adventure and embraces every challenge with open arms. An accomplished chiropractor, he owns a thriving practice and dreams of expanding it into a wellness hub that reaches even more people. Outside of work, Banes channels his energy into competing in triathlons, a testament to his disciplined and competitive spirit. His love for sports knows no bounds—whether it's a pickup game or a new sport he's never tried, Banes is always eager to jump in. Curiosity and a zest for life define him, and he's never one to shy away from a new experience. Case in point: he taught himself to ride a unicycle, purely for the fun of mastering something unconventional. With a personality that balances understanding and ambition, Banes connects easily with others, making him a natural leader and a steadfast man.
