

Canyon (14162) Staff Impression

Canyon is handsome, charming, adventurous, easy-going, and intelligent. He holds a master's degree in civil engineering and currently works in the industry as a private consultant. He plans to start his own company in the future and teach civil engineering part-time at a university. We think his strong work ethic, patient personality, and passion for learning make him well-suited for his career goals.

Canyon has attractive features with high cheekbones; a well-defined, square jawline; medium-sized nose, curved brows; dark, hooded eyes; and a full head of thick, black, wavy hair. He is lean and muscular from a healthy and active lifestyle that includes skateboarding, volleyball, and hiking. Canyon is an avid traveler and loves to try new foods. Portugal and Spain top his list for future travel plans to experience the rich culture and cuisine. Canyon is incredibly well-rounded and a great choice for a donor!
