

Argand 10912 Staff Impression

Argand stands tall at 6'1", with an oval-shaped head that carries an air of sophistication. His shaved chestnut brown hair highlights his sharp features, while his hazel round eyes, full of warmth and wit, shine beneath naturally arched eyebrows. A distinguished Roman nose adds a touch of timeless character to his face, and his ever-present side-smile—equal parts sly and inviting—gives him effortless charm.

Argand is a dynamic and driven individual who balances his professional ambitions with his personal passions. As a commercial real estate broker, he thrives in the fast-paced world of high-stakes deals, where his charisma and sharp instincts set him apart. Outside the office, Argand finds harmony in his love for music, frequently playing the piano and drums to express his creativity and unwind. A fitness enthusiast, he enjoys staying active and can often be found jogging through scenic routes, embracing the rhythm of his surroundings. A true food connoisseur, his favorite indulgence is raw oysters, a delicacy he never passes up. Argand attributes much of his success—both personally and professionally—to the strong bond he shares with his family. Their unwavering support and deep connection have been the cornerstone of his journey, shaping him into the confident, compassionate, and driven individual he is today.
