

Goodard 20006 Staff Impression

Goodard is an entertaining man, standing tall at 6 feet with a muscular physique. His dark blond hair is meticulously styled, with the sides shaved clean and the top left long, often swept back but occasionally falling into place. His oval-shaped eyes are a vivid, striking green, glowing with energy. Slim lips frame his confident, knowing smirk, while his straight, slightly upturned nose lends a refined sharpness to his face. With his playful demeanor and dynamic presence, Goodard is the kind of person who keeps everyone guessing what he'll do next.

Goodard is a charismatic blend of goofy charm and eloquence. As a music coordinator in the sports entertainment industry, he's the maestro behind the beats that keep fans on their feet. A proud dog dad to Sophie, his loyal and mischievous pup, Goodard lights up when talking about her antics. Family is the heart of his world, and with a big, bustling clan, there's always someone to cheer for or share a laugh with. A die-hard baseball fan, he knows his way around a game just as well as he does a playlist. Fun fact? Reggae music is his music of choice—it's the rhythm of his happy-go-lucky soul!
