Bremmer 10983 Staff Impression

Bremmer stands tall at 6'4" with a large, solid build. He has a inviting, oval face with soft features, bright brown eyes that that are often framed by glasses, and full lips that form a relaxed smile. His cool toned fair skin contrasts nicely with his curly brown hair and a full, well-groomed beard that gives him a friendly, rugged charm.

With a background in HVAC and computer science, Bremmer is naturally analytical and mechanically gifted, he can fix just about anything and solves puzzles like a Rubik's cube in under two minutes. Although he has a laid-back and go-with-the-flow personality, he is energetic and loves to stay active loves rollerblading (his favorite), skateboarding, skiing, snowboarding, hiking, swimming, dancing, and diving into video games or global current events when he takes the time to sit back and relax. He's all about bringing happiness to those around him and envisions a future filled with family, a big house, and plenty of creative projects in semi-retirement. Bremmer is genuinely thrilled to donate so he can help others build the loving families they've been dreaming of.
