

Bergen 18273 Staff Impression

Bergen has an oval-shaped face with a slightly prominent forehead. His warm brown eyes are almond-shaped and framed by straight, well-defined eyebrows that arch gently. His nose is straight and well-proportioned, with a softly rounded tip, while his full lips curve into a joyful smile that reveals straight white teeth and prominent. He sports short facial hair that accentuates his jawline, which is defined but not sharply angular. His black hair is curly and cropped short on top and his olive skin tone is smooth and even. He has a friendly look that immediately draws people in.

Of mixed European and Turkish descent, Bergen holds a bachelor's degree in English and enjoys creative activities like making music on guitar, keys, and drums. His athletic background includes tennis, skateboarding, and biking. He's charismatic, kind, and emotionally intelligent, focused on personal growth both intellectually and emotionally. Driven by strong family values from his parents and two sisters, he hopes to contribute to community mutual aid. Bergen is motivated to donate to help others build the family of their dreams, believing in the lifelong beauty of parent-child connections.
