Wessex 18125 Staff Impression

Wessex has a friendly, warm smile and an approachable look. He has an oval face with a high forehead, a straight nose, and thin lips. His deep-set hazel eyes are a beautiful kaleidoscope of brown and green tones. His dark brown hair is straight and neatly styled. He has a slim, athletic build, maintained by an active lifestyle. His warm, fair skin harmoniously complements his hair and eyes.

Wessex has a bachelor's degree in aviation and aerospace science. He excelled in his studies, particularly in math, earning a 3.4 GPA. He loves flying airplanes and has practiced Muay Thai for the past five years. He enjoys outdoor activities like camping and hiking with his dog. He is also an avid reader and writer, using sketchbooks to create drawings that showcase his artistic side. Easy-going and open-minded, he keeps strong emotional control and shows sympathy toward others. He aims to become a commercial airline pilot traveling internationally. He values the supportive family environment that he grew up in, which shaped his strong moral compass and determination. Wessex is motivated to donate to help aspiring parents build their families.
